

UEN-TV Highlights - May 2023

TV for Thinkers

Career Exploration

Roadtrip Nation: Chip In

Tuesdays at 8 p.m. beginning May 9

Explore the careers in microelectronics that are making a giant impact on our daily lives.

A Path Forward: Healthcare

Tuesday, May 9 at 8:30 p.m.

Ignite your interest in healthcare by visiting a top biotech research base in Connecticut.

A Path Forward: Technology and Sustainability

Tuesday, May 16 at 8:30 p.m.

Discover the wide range of careers in demand for students interested in STEM.

Roadtrip Nation: Changemakers

Tuesday, May 23 at 8 p.m.

Travel with three young adults as they explore career paths that could make a difference in their communities.

AAPI Month

Shinmachi: Stronger Than a Tsunami

Saturday, May 6 at 8 p.m.

Feel inspired by the resilience of a Japanese community that survived two deadly tsunamis.

Behind the Strings

Sunday, May 7 at 8 p.m.

Follow the journey of a quartet that fled to the West after classical music was banned in China.

A Thousand Pebbles on the Ground

Saturday, May 20 at 8 p.m.

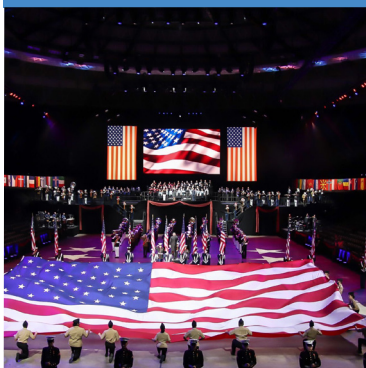

Meet a Chinese-American medical worker dedicated to spreading joy despite facing discrimination and heartbreak.

Ka Hana Kapa

Wednesday, May 31 at 8 p.m.

Delve into the deep cultural history of the Hawaiian art form Kapa.

Honorable Service

Anahita: A Mother's Journey

Thursday, May 11 at 9 p.m.

Journey with an Afghan refugee who escaped the Taliban with her children to settle in a new country.

Searching for Home: Coming Back from War

Thursday, May 25 at 8:30 p.m.

Get a glimpse into the lives of veterans on their search for healing after returning home.

Tuskegee Airmen: Return to Ramitelli

Saturday, May 27 at 9 p.m.

Learn about a group of Black military pilots who, despite barriers, became WWII heroes.

Music and Might: America's International Tattoo

Sunday, May 28 at 8 p.m.

Enjoy a patriotic and lively musical performance by various military marching bands.