

Children

Greenglass House by Kate Milford

Expecting a quiet season, 12-year-old Milo is surprised when odd guests crowd his family inn. With help from a friend, he sleuths their hidden reasons for being there.

The Golden Compass by Phillip Pullman

In an alternative Steampunk England, Lyra and Pan set out to rescue a friend and find themselves to be at the center of an epic battle over Dust.

Winterhouse by Ben Guterson

An orphaned girl is shipped off to stay at an ominous hotel with a peculiar owner. When she encounters a magical book of puzzles, she is drawn into layers of mystery around her new home and the people she learns to care about.

Young Adults

A Sudden Silence by Eye Bunting

When his deaf brother is killed in a hit and run, Jesse must unravel who the driver was while also coming to terms with his grief.

Enola Holmes and the Black Barouche by Nancy Springer

The much-younger sister of the famed Sherlock, 15-year-old Enola takes her own cases and goes undercover to find the truth about a woman's disappearance.

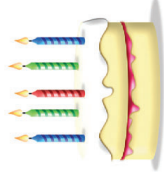

Lock & Mori by Heather Petty

In modern-day London, Lock challenges his classmate Mori to see who will solve a murder first. Soon, the game turns sinister as Mori comes to realize the murder is connected to her own past.

uen LitFlix

Watch the film | Read the book

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE!

Fridays at 8 p.m. on UEN-TV Channel 9.1

Watch classic films based on books

May 6 The Sign of Four (1932)

A young woman calls on the great detective when she finds herself entangled in a terrifying web of secrets and violence in this adaptation of the novel by the same name.

May 13 Woman in Green (1945)

Taking from Doyle's "The Final Problem" and "The Adventure of the Empty House," this film stars Nigel Rathbone in his standout turn as Sherlock Holmes.

May 20 Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Weapon (1942)

This adventure borrows from Doyle's "The Adventure of the Dancing Men" to reimagine Holmes and Watson as World War II counterespies.

May 27 The Triumph of Sherlock Holmes (1935)

Starring Arthur Wontner as Holmes, this adaptation of Doyle's novel The Valley of Fear places the Victorian detective in a 1930s setting.

Manti Public Library

Minersville Public Library

Looking for titles to read as a group? Check out the UEN LitFlix Collection from USL's Book Buzz program at library.utah.gov/book-buzz.

Find great reads and more at your public library.

If you like detective stories...

Dead Dead Girls by Nekesa Afia

In 1926 Harlem, party girl Louise is forced to face her past—and call on her considerable wits and courage—to outsmart a killer.

Land of Careful Shadows by Suzanne Chazin

Homicide detective Jimmy Vega is called in to investigate a death in his upstate New York hometown where the scenery is beautiful but the secrets can be murder.

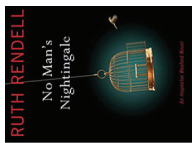

Hide and Seek by Wilkie Collins

By the author credited with writing the first true detective novel, this twisting, turning tale unravels the family secrets surrounding a beautiful young woman who cannot speak or hear.

Max Carrados by Ernest Bramah

Again and again, a detective who is blind solves complex cases with his keen mind and trusty sidekick in this collection of short stories.

No Man's Nightingale by Ruth Rendell

Chief Inspector Wexford seeks to solve the case of Vicar Sarah Hussein's murder in book 24 of a popular series.

UEN-TV broadcasts across Utah via antenna, cable, and satellite. Find local viewing options at uen.org/tv/translators.

If you like graphic novels...

Batman: The Long Halloween by Jeph Loeb & Tim Sale
He's Batman: part superhero, part detective—and he's out to stop a murderer in one of the greatest Dark Knight tales of all time.

Resistance by Val McDermid and Kathryn Briggs
A journalist steps back from her hard-hitting career to enjoy time with friends, tending a food truck at a music festival. When people start falling ill, her investigative skills are needed.

A Study In Emerald by Neil Gaiman, Raphael Albuquerque and Dave Stewart
This graphic treatment of Gaiman's Hugo Award-winning story weaves Sherlock Holmes, H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos, and an alternative London with artful illustration.

A Treasury of Victorian Murder Vol. 1 by Rick Geary
A popular comic artist charmingly renders true crime stories ripped from newspapers of the 1800s: The Ryan Tragedy, The Dr. Pritchard Case, and The Mrs. Pearcey Murders.

For younger readers...

Goldie Vance Vol. 1 by Hope Larson and Brittney Williams
Sixteen-year-old Marigold "Goldie" Vance aspires to become a hotel detective. She gets her chance in the first of a popular series set in an idealized 1950s Florida.

uen.org/litflix