

UEN-TV Highlights - November 2020

Overcoming the Odds

My Survivor

Thursday, November 5 at 9 p.m.

Who will tell the story of the Holocaust when the last survivor is gone? University students forge life-changing relationships with Holocaust survivors through an innovative program.

Carrie Chapman Catt: Warrior for Women

Wednesday, November 18 at 8 p.m.

Discover the story of Carrie Chapman Catt, a key leader of the American women's suffrage movement.

Forgotten Fame: The Marion Miley Story

Wednesday, November 18 at 9 p.m.

Learn about Marion Miley, the pioneering pro golfer whose career captivated audiences in the 1930s before it was cut short by her headline-grabbing murder.

Not All Lost

Saturday, November 28 at 8 p.m.

Get inspired by young adults who overcome obstacles to success from health challenges and drugs to gang participation and peer pressure.

Native American Heritage

Basketball, Water and the Lost City of Elbowoods

Thursday, November 5 at 8 p.m.

Relive the excitement of a 1942 basketball team's bid for a championship and the fate of the team's hometown which is now covered by Lake Sakakawea.

We're Still Here

Thursday, November 12 at 9 p.m.

Explore the music and educational outreach of First Nation indigenous hip-hop artists in Canada to address social injustices, heal personal traumas and preserve their cultures.

Saving the Sacred

Thursday, November 19 at 8 p.m.

Witness the process of the Koi and Habemetol Pomo to protect their 14,000-year-old homeland and culture from rapid urbanization and looting.

Metal Road

Wednesday, November 25 at 8:30 p.m.

Explore the dynamics of livelihood, family and railroads through the lens of a Navajo trackman.

Our Veterans & Gratitude

The Silent Soldier and the Portrait

Saturday, November 7 at 9 p.m.

Journey with a father and his daughter as they retrace his footsteps as a young soldier in 1944—and uncover secrets he'd kept for more than 75 years.

Grandpa's War Story Goes Viral

Wednesday, November 11 at 9 p.m.

Follow a determined World War II soldier who ran away to join the Army at 14, serving in the 504th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division before his age was discovered.

Listening is an Act of Love

Thursday, November 26 at 8:30 p.m.

Engage with the first-ever animated feature from StoryCorps, which presents six personal stories featuring everyday people exploring life's important questions.

A Passion for Giving

Thursday, November 26 at 9 p.m.

Rediscover the joy of generosity with this powerful film about the importance of helping people, animals and the planet through one's time, resources or talent.