

UEN-TV Highlights - February 2024

TV for Thinkers

Black History Month

The Black Fire Documentary
Saturday, February 3
at 8 p.m.

Experience the rich musical legacy of Washington, DC through the history of Black Fire Records, an independent jazz record label owned by Black artists.

Raised/Razed
Saturday, February 10
at 9 p.m.

Delve into the history of Charlottesville's oldest African American neighborhood.

7 Lives of Music – The Kanneh-Mason Family
Sunday, February 25
at 8 p.m.

Meet a family of young Black musicians who, despite facing barriers, are achieving success in the classical music space.

Leveling Lincoln
Wednesday, February 28
at 8 p.m.

Discover the children who lived through the landmark desegregation case of Taylor vs. Board of Education.

Moving Human Stories

Steve Jobs and Japan
Friday, February 19
at 9:10 p.m.

Explore how the tech revolutionary's lifelong fascination with Japan shaped his life philosophy.

The Seabees on Iwo Jima
Wednesday, February 21
at 9 p.m.

Learn about the US Naval Construction Battalions' essential role in building infrastructure for the Allies during WWII.

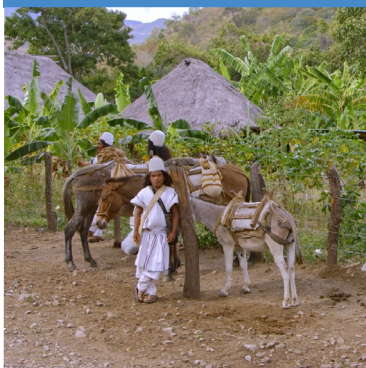

Cuba in Africa
Saturday, February 24
at 7:30 p.m.

Uncover the story of 420,000 Cuban soldiers and civilians who fought to end colonial rule in Southern Africa.

Keeper of the Flame
Saturday, February 27
at 9 p.m.

Follow the life and legacy of Jack Healy, a human rights activist known for fusing music and activism.

Protecting Our Planet

On Grizzly Grounds
Monday, February 12
at 8:30 p.m.

Take a closer look at the conservation efforts of grizzly bears in the Greater Yellowstone area.

Switch On Thursdays at 8 p.m.
beginning February 15

Journey across the globe exploring the different ways countries are bringing energy to their citizens.

Forest Her: The Next Wave of Conservation
Monday, February 19
at 8:30 p.m.

Examine the historical roles women have provided to their communities through scientific forest management.

We Are All Plastic People Now
Monday, February 19
at 9 p.m.

Investigate at the potential effects plastic pollution has on human health.